Lancers Overpower Brownies

Longmeadow showed exactly why they are undefeated in the Valley Wheel and third ranked in Division II by putting on a devastating second half exhibition to level the Brownies 81-55 before a huge throng at the high school gym Jan. 17.

By the way Agawam performed in the opening half, no one could possibly dream of the Lancers final 26 point cushion. "I was pleased with the kids in the first half," said Coach Wayne Morse. "It was very solid. We just had a complete all around breakdown in the second half," the coach added.

Torrid Shooting

Junior guard Mark Winne led a ballhawking Brownie 2-1-2 zone with two steals resulting in a breakaway layup and a perfect two on one feed to Tommy Quinn for the easy bunny lifting Agawam in early action. With the Brownies leading 12-10 at the 3:15 point, the Lancers reeled off eight in a row. But Tommy Quinn displayed some of his patented gunnery (5-7 in period) to narrow the gap to 20-18 at the buzzer.

The Brownies continued their hot shooting in the early part of the second quarter, however, Longmeadow's strong offensive rebounding was a clue of things to come. The visitors went on a six point tear and led 30-24 with 3:23 remaining. Senior forward Greg Fuchs hit a short jump shot then Quinn pumped his first two second period field goals padding Agawam to within 32-30 at intermission.

Easy Layup

Phil Mackler started the Lancers off fast on an easy layup following the opening tip, then Longmeadow's outstanding forward John Reardon started finding the range, and suddenly the Brownies trailed 44-32. Longmeadow inserted a diamond-and-one defense to nullify Tommy Quinn who had a great 14 point first half. The Lancers new architecture totally disorganized the home boys.

"The diamond hurt us," Morse said. "We weren't patient and we panicked." At the end of three the Lancers stretched their bulge to 54-39, outscoring Agawam 20-9 in the quarter.

Poor Shooting

Agawam's poor third quarter shooting didn't improve much in the final eight minutes, but the Lancers, almost at will, rifled in hoops from all over the floor. The Brownies were forced out of their zone into a man-to-man which gave Longmeadow numerous easy bunnies. "Our presses didn't work and our offensive patterns failed," said Morse.

Reardon led all scorers with 28 points followed by Quinn's 18. Junior forward Karl Ekstedt and senior center Jeff Carmody chipped in 11 and 10 respectively for Agawam. The Brownies managed only 25 rebounds combined compared to well over 60 for the visitors. "We'll bounce back," Morse promised. "We still can win the league." Agawam ended round one in a three way tie for second place honors with Minnechaug and East Longmeadow at 3-2 marks.

Agawam is proud of their High School Marching Band. These boys and girls work hard and put in many extra hours to bring honor to their high school and town. They have competed twice in the North American Field Band Competition in Philadelphia.

Local events consist of Columbus Day Parades, Junior Football League opening, Massachusetts Day at Eastern States Exposition, and Agawam's Halloween Parade.

They have competed in the Blossom Festival Parade and Band Contest at Niagra Falls, Canada. The band has also had the honor of being invited to many out of state competitions, but had to refuse, due to lack of finances.

Now that you have a brief resume about the band, we're sure you will agree that a donation of $10 will be a worthwhile investment in our youth and their future endeavors. This donation will automatically make you a sponsor at our February 7 and 8 Pops Concert.

Many thanks and hope to see you at the concert. The band needs to know their town cares.

News In The Third

By REP. EDWARD W. CONNELLY
NEW SESSION

We got an early start this year. The state constitution provides that the General Court is to convene on the first Wednesday in January. This year the first Wednesday was New Year's Day.

David Bartley was elected to continue as Speaker and Frank Hatch as Minority Leader.

There are 46 Republicans in the House this session, the lowest number in history, but this includes eight new members. Eight former incumbents chose not to run for re-election and six incumbents were defeated in November. So there are six fewer Republicans now than there were last session.

The Democrats have bounced back over the years from 39 members in 1897 to 191 on opening day, 1975. But two members resigned shortly, one to become a clerk of court, another to become the Secretary of Administration of the new Administration.

There are three independents in the new House of Representatives.

Minority representation has increased. The number of Black members has grown from five to eight, the number of women from 10 to 16.

that it contained none of the specific proposals for curing the state's ills that he had propounded during the campaign. So there remains a question as to the immediate priorities and direction of the new administration.

The new Governor did, however, soon issue an executive order setting up a Judicial Nominating Commission of eleven members to come up with names of qualified judges and court clerks for him to appoint. This order would only have effect during his administration, but he plans to submit a constitutional amendment to make the commission permanent.

While this would seem to make judicial selection less political, Dukakis has been criticized for simply taking the power of appointment away from a popularly elected official, (himself) and putting it in the hands of appointed officials one more step removed from the democratic process.

He has also made no secret of his impatience to get rid of the Executive Council, which now must pass on all judicial appointments. Pending their dissolution by his constitutional amendment he has removed them from the traditional Council offices next to his own office to quarters in the State House basement.

COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENT

On Jan. 6, the Speaker announced committee assignments and the writer was returned to his seat on the Committee on Counties and given a seat on the Committee on Transportation.

INAUGURATION

The new Governor, Michael S. Dukakis gave his inauguration speech to a packed House Chamber the next day.

The speech has been criticized by some in

POPS CONCERT

Pops Concert will be held at the new Junior High School this year by the Agawam High Band.

The program which has become a popular event will still maintain some of the traditional pops seating at tables; however, the format of the concert will be a little different with the first half taking place in the auditorium while the second part will move into the cafeteria for the table seating.

The first part of the program will feature the full concert band in a variety of special numbers two of which will include members of Middle and Junior High School groups. "Trumpetango" will feature all trumpet players from sixth grade through twelfth, while "Midnight Soliloquy" will feature all saxophone players from Middle, Junior High and Senior High School Bands.

The second part of the concert will feature the Agawam High School Dance Band and Jazz Ensemble and will be the portion of the program where table seating and refreshments will be available.

THIRTEEN MUSICIANS
SELECTED FOR HONORS

Thirteen Agawam High School musicians have been selected for All-Western Mass. Honors.

Each year The Western District Music Festival selects the top chorus and band members from the 50 high schools in the district to be a part of the All-Western Mass. Band, Chorus and Orchestra.

This year a new small group of advanced instrumentalists will be formed into a jazz ensemble. Entrance to these groups is by competitive audition with hundreds of students trying out for positions in the 200 voice chorus, the 100 piece band, 75 piece orchestra or 20 members of jazz ensemble. The top quarter of the district honor groups have the opportunity to compete for positions in the All State Groups.

Unlike the sports all-star teams in scholastic circles, the District and All-State groups actually get together for rehearsals and perform concerts.

Selected for Western Mass. Chorus this year are Holly Kinnell, Connie Kinnell, Betty Knapik, Dori-Ann Chmielewski, Virginia Skovholt, Chris Racine, Robert Trempe and Dennis Cowart.

In the All Western Mass. instrumental group three of the Agawam High band members received the highest score at the tryouts and will be playing first chair positions. They are Cheryl Fogg (flute in orchestra), Mark Benedict (trumpet in jazz ensemble) and Darcy Davis (alto saxophone in jazz ensemble). Donna Hulse will also play first chair flute in the concert band and Barry Boccasile will be a member of the drum section.

Holly Kinnell, Connie Kinnell, Betty Knapik and Robert Trempe will be allowed to tryout for All State Chorus and all of the band members will be allowed to tryout for All State Band.

Massachusetts Association For The Blind One Of First To Be Accredited

There are over 12,000 legally blind persons in Massachusetts. In the Springfield area 1300 are registered with the Commission for the Blind. Of this number 550 are clients of the Massachusetts Association for the Blind, a United Way of Pioneer Valley agency.

The agency was founded in 1902, in Boston, to provide meaningful service for the adult blind of the state. The Springfield office opened in February 1968 and was supported for two years as a pilot project by the Community Funds Advisory Council.

"With a great deal of help from the community we were able to keep the office open until the United Way approved our funding application in December of 1971", Sister Jeanne Brault, S.P., supervisor of volunteers said.

The agency serves not only the legally blind but anyone with a visual handicap. The term "legally blind" means the blind person can see at 20 feet what normal persons see at 200 feet. Sister Jeanne said, "Our philosophy is to integrate the blind with their sighted peers. The visually handicapped have the right to expect a life of dignity. A person is no less a person because he or she is blind. Our programs are designed to help the visually handicapped become as independent as possible within the framework of his or her limitations."

MAB offers a qualitative service, fluid and innovative, providing casework, volunteer and supportive services. The agency initiates new programs based on client's requests.

Sister Jeanne explained, "Many of our elderly clients were going to a low vision clinic in Boston. The trip was too long for them as well as difficult transportation wise. We therefore, worked with Mercy Hospital to establish such a service for Springfield."

Social work input for the clinic is provided by Mrs. Joan Walker, MAB staff member. Mrs. Walker helps the client determine what kind of aid they need. This is interpreted to the physician who in turn finds the corrective lense. The requests vary from anxiety about keeping a job which requires sight for fine work or a desire to read the fine print in a newspaper. Often the lenses are either microscopic or telescopic and are not too fashionable looking and clients have difficulty adjusting to their usage. Mrs. Walker assists them in adapting to the aid.

"Similar to the United Way itself, our agency depends on volunteers. Without them service to our clients would be greatly reduced," Sister Jeanne said. Clients are transported to appointments, shopping, recreational and cultural activities such as bowling and sewing classes.

One of the favorites with volunteers is taping for students. This is a seasonal service as most of the students need the service only at the beginning of a semester when they obtain their text books and reading lists.

A telephone tape service provides three minutes of information on fashion tips, shopping hints and television news.

This year 62 new volunteers were added and received a training session prior to being assigned a client. Sister Jeanne said, "We're always looking for volunteers, especially drivers." Volunteers gave over 5,000 hours of service in 1974.

Sister Jeanne, also blind, served on the consulting committee for the Touch and See Trail at Laughing Brook. MAB staff are members of the Inter-Agency Council of Springfield.

A 16 member advisory council composed of professional and business leaders in the community assists the agency in special projects.

In November the agency became one of the first in the country and the first in the state to be accredited by the National Accreditation Council of Agencies Serving the Blind and Visually Handicapped.

John Sapelli

PROFILE OF THE WEEK

All Is Well With "Sapell"

"John improves every game. He's coming into his own," offered Varsity Hockey Coach Russ Ramah about his very fine senior center iceman John Sapelli. "John has an excellent attitude and is a very coachable kid," Ramah added.

The 1974-75 ice campaign has been a stepping stone of sorts for Sapelli. Only last season, as a junior, John was called up from JV to fill a vacancy on varsity's third line. He saw his share of playing time but he hardly was the "talk of the town" for Agawam. However, this year Sapelli centers the Brownies consistent all senior first line, and is utilized on both powerplay and penalty killing units. "Sapelli" has pulled the trigger seven times at the season's midpoint in leading his mates in the scoring department.

"I didn't have any idea where he (Ramah) was going to put me at the beginning of the year," remembered Sapelli. "He teamed me up with Randy (Economidy) and Billy (Wysocki) and it has worked out great," he added. John credits his success this winter to better conditioning and skating, 100 per cent improvement of his wrist shot and the hardwork of wings Economidy and Wysocki. "Billy has three assists on my goals and Randy has assisted on every one," Sapelli pointed out.

Sapelli's crafty style of play consists of a very fluent skating motion coupled with a deceptive slap shot and a hard accurate wrist shot which is his main artillery. John is highly competitive during game action but by maintaining his poise he rarely finds himself in altercations with opposing players or officials. "I lose my temper but I don't really show it," Sapelli said. "I can't do anyone any good in the penalty box."

A three goal "hat trick" leading Agawam to a 5-2 verdict over Chicopee's All Western Mass. goalie candidate Al Turgeon marks the highlight of the season for Sapelli. "We're a lot better than our record shows" (3-7-1), Sapelli noted. "The attitude this year is a lot better. We have a better club than last year," he further remarked. John feels senior net-minders Rick Mastrianni and Rollie Dennincourt have performed commendably, and the countless Agawam penalties is the squad's major drawback.

Easy-going, friendly, and quite likable best describe the lanky Sapelli who is usually seen sporting an executive-type white trench coat. In the fall skating and working consume most of John's free moments. During the summer months he is employed by a pool installing company. John rides on one of those huge wide load truck-trailers which sputters at about two miles an hour and causes endless aggravation for motorists.

As for the near future John will hopefully show off his southpaw pitching talents next March as a varsity baseball participant, then June rolls around and graduation. "I've waited 11 years for my senior year and I'm just enjoying it," Sapelli smiled.

Next fall Sapelli hopes to attend UConn or St. Anselm's to further his education and hockey adventures. Whatever John encounters in coming years his all around abilities will always spell "very well for Sapelli".

Skiers Nosed Out By Lancers

Brownie snowmen tallied their best time of the season on Jan. 15 against Longmeadow, however, it was not quite enough as the Lancers downed Agawam by just two seconds (85.0-87.0) in a race held at Mt. Tom in Holyoke.

"I was looking for a win," Coach Richard Joseph said. "We just couldn't pull it out," he added.

Once again juniors Tom Stapleton and Rick Curry along with sophomore Greg Moriarty checked in as Agawam's top finishers. Captain Tom Cirillo had his best meet to date by placing third for the Brownies. "He did very well," Joseph said.

"He's going to come along."

Joseph was also pleased with first year man Rick Curry, undoubtedly the fourth year coach's surprise of the season. "Rick is a very consistent performer. He has done very well in our three races," the Agawam mentor added.

Although the Brownies have now fallen to a 0-3 mark, Joseph is still confident for success in future meets. "We have had some very good practices," he said. "We're really working hard to develop our skills."

Agawam's next outing falls on Jan. 30 against South Hadley, which should be a very tight meet.

SPORTS

with Ric Sardella

Swimmers Clipped Twice

The loss of star performer Tom Cassidy is finally beginning to take its effect on Agawam varsity swimmers as the Brownies were dealt consecutive setbacks against two independent foes a week ago. st, a very potent Hoosac Valley contingent swept by Agawam 110-62, then Division B leader South Hadley sunk the Brownie mermen 55-22.

"We really miss Tom," said Coach Dave Smith. "He would have scored well over 160 points if he was out there the whole season," he added.

Hoosac Valley captured first in every event except the 100 yard breast stroke where sophomore Dave Masisco capped top honors. "He's only a sophomore and he's already a good one,"

Smith said about his very fine rookie performer. Masisco also hit a second in the 200 yard individual medley. "Hoosac Valley was very deep in everything. They were very, very good," the coach said.

Strategic Move

Smith inserted his most versatile Flipper, senior Dave Theodorowicz, in the 500 hard free style event during the Hoosac meet hoping the move would provide his charges with a big more scoring punch. "We figured we could pick up a few points without him (Theodorowicz) in the 100 yard free style which we thought we could take two, three anyway," Smith said. Bobby Johnson and Ray Carestia picked up second and third in the 100 as expected, and Theodorowicz responded with a second in the 500. "T" likewise picked up a second in his familiar 50 yard free style event. Other than that Agawam had very little to cheer about against the Berkshire power.

Agawam picked up only two firsts against the Division B strongmen. Once again Dave Masisco found himself winning the 100 yard breast stroke, while the free style relay quartet of Carestia, Johnson, Jimmy Gallerani, and Bobby Gardner also copped a first. "We have the potential for the school record (4:23) in the relay," commented Smith.

Always Dependable

The always dependable Dave Theodorowicz snared seconds in the 50 and 100 yard free style nailing down his usual fine performance. "He had his best time in the 100 (1:03.6) and he is shooting for under one minute which he should reach soon," related Smith. Other Brownie bright spots were senior Frank Ball in diving (second place) and Danny Williams in 500 yard free style (second place). "Frank has 35½ points this year and he has made them all in just that event," Smith pointed out.

Agawam's record has fallen to 1-7 as of Jan. 20.

Mid-season point totals:

Theodorowicz 79½, Masisco 63½, Cassidy 45, Eric Brown 42½, Gardner 41, Williams 39, Carestia 38, Ball 35½.

Hoosac Valley and Brownie swimmers wait for the gun to signal the races start.

Coach Dave Smith talks it over with his squad following 110-66 loss to Hoosac Valley. In foreground are Bobby Doucette, Don Smith and Frank Ball.

Benerakis Stars Girls Capture 32-31 Thriller Over Longmeadow

Senior Jane Benerakis only recently back from a severely sprained ankle hit a short jump shot with 35 seconds showing on the fourth quarter clock propelling the girls varsity to a 32-31 squeaker over Longmeadow Jan. 17 at Longmeadow.

Benerakis' field goal came from a Laurie Clark feed after Clark only seconds earlier had missed a crucial foul shot which would have knotted the game at 31. Clark somehow snared the rebound following her errant charity attempt and neatly found her teammate under the basket for what proved to be the winning points. "I told Laurie if she put her foul shot in we would tie it," said Coach Carol Capitani. "She missed it but her hustle won the game for us," the first year coach added.

Right Foot

Agawam got off on the right foot immediately after the opening tap as Benerakis broke away for an easy layup. Longmeadow then reeled off 12 straight points against the Brownies' zone defense during the remainder of the period to take a 12-2 lead at the horn. "Longmeadow has improved tremendously since the first time we played them," said Capitani. (Agawam won the first meeting 30-21).

During the second session the Brownies offense still sputtered, netting only six points although Longmeadow hit just four. The key to the opening half was the Lancer girls domination of the boards, in holding Agawam to one shot at the hoop. But a few adjustments by Capitani in the final 16 minutes proved to be the turning point.

Full Court Press

Longmeadow found a swarming full court man-to-man press facing them in the third quarter and they simply couldn't handle it. The Brownies forced the Lancers into numerous turnovers which destroyed the home squad's timing. Agawam also nullified Longmeadow's control of the backboards. "Laurie Clark did a tremendous job on the boards for us," Capitani commented. By the end of three Agawam trailed 24-20 and the intense all court press in period four took its toll on the Lancers pushing Agawam to their tight victory.

"My guards Judy Bozeck and Celeste Gallucci were very aggressive which caused them problems," Capitani analyzed. "I can also put Judy at forward and Leslie (Clark) at guard and still have a strong five out there. I have a very versatile team," Capitani added.

Best Record Ever

The girls 3-4 Valley Wheel mark is their best ever and Coach Capitani credits it to defense, conditioning and quickness. The major weakness Capitani has encountered is inconsistent scoring and poor rebounding which have hurt her charges in a number of contests. However, with Benerakis seemingly back in form and with senior frontliners Leslie Smith and Marie Dufault improving each game, the Brownies could possibly be a top contender yet. Earlier in the week the girls suffered a 41-25 beating by a fine Ludlow five. Agawam was behind the entire game and never really got untracked. Benerakis played sparingly in the loss but still headed Brownie scoring with 11 points.

Hoop Parents Announce Plans

The first meeting of the Agawam Basketball Parents Association was held on Dec. 16 with first year Varsity Coach Wayne Morse as the main speaker. A second meeting was held Jan. 6.

The purpose of the organization is to promote basketball in Agawam, to raise scholarships for graduating senior players who continue their education, to present senior players trophies, and, to provide a banquet at the close of the winter campaign.

Fund-raising plans include the sale of raffle tickets, the selling of programs at home games, and, the soliciting of a patron list to be published in the banquet programs. Raffle tickets have been distributed to all players on both varsity and junior varsity levels, and also to cheerleaders. Plans are currently being made for the 13th annual banquet to be held in March at the Junior High School cafeteria.

Officers for the 1974-1975 season are; Mrs. William Ekstedt, president; Mrs. William Miller, vice president; Arthur Fuchs, treasurer; and, Mrs. Raymond LaBranche, secretary. All parents of players are welcome to attend association meetings held Mondays at 8 p.m. in the high school teachers' cafeteria. The dates for the remaining meetings are Feb. 3 and Feb. 24.

Brownies Knot Up Hurricanes, 4-4

Two third period goals by senior wing Billy Wysocki gave Agawam a 4-4 tie with hustling Amherst on Jan. 15 in Amherst. Two days prior to the Hurricane encounter the Berry Division's top club, Cathedral, whitewashed the Brownies 5-0 at the Eastern States Coliseum.

"You figure you are doing good when you come out of Amherst with a point," commented Coach Russ Ramah. "I was very pleased with our comeback in the third period," he added. In a game which saw play up and down the ice all night, Amherst's Mark Stoneman and Tom Slocombe fired goals past Brownie netminder Rolland Dennincourt in the first stanza lifting the home sextet to a 2-0 edge.

McNamara and Kelly

But in the second period junior John McNamara rifled his initial goal of the season as did senior Ron Kelly in deadlocking the contest at two apiece after 30 minutes of fast paced hockey. "I was glad to see us get some scoring from other people," Ramah said.

Amherst forged ahead in the final session on Scott Ambys' tally, then the Brownies came right back as Wysocki clicked for his first goal via 25 foot wrist drive into the upper corner. The Hurricane's once again broke the tie when Dennis Whittemore beat Dennincourt for his first lamp-lighter of the evening minutes later.

Wysocki Again

Wysocki knotted things up for good on a quick wrist shot right in front of the Hurricane cage at the 12:32 mark. Senior center John Sapelli hit Wysocki with a perfect pass for the assist. "Our first line is very consistent," Ramah remarked. "Rollie had a good game for us - as did defensiveman, Scott Brown," the Agawam mentor added. "The players on the other teams are out to get Brownie. One more fight and he's gone." (Brown got involved in a fight with Longmeadow earlier in the year. According to schoolboy rules if a player has two fights during a season he is banished for the remainder of games.)

Tough Defense

Cathedral's rough and fast skating defense totally stymied Ramah's forces Jan. 13. The Brownies mustered only five shots all night against the tough Panthers. Cathedral's Bill Ellis notched the bout's initial tally in the first period, then Paul Fenton lit the lamp on a powerplay during the mid-session. The Panthers broke the game open with three scores off Rick Mastrianni in the final 15 minutes.

"They play very well defensively," Ramah said.

"They blocked at least 10-12 of our shots," Brownie goalie Mastrianni stopped 33 Panther drives in a good effort. "We just didn't have it," summarized Ramah. Agawam was without the services of junior center Brian Keeley against Amherst, and missing for the Cathedral contest was junior Mark Faucette and sophomore John Girard, both second liners.

The Brownies record as of Jan. 20 stands at 3-7-1 overall. Agawam has five points in the Berry Division and are in sixth place, nine points off Cathedral's pace.

The Agawam Hockey Association will hold its Annual Dinner Dance February 22 at the Agawam Armory, Manard St.. A smorgasbord will be served.

Anyone wishing to attend, please contact Jerry Sibilia, Carr St., for tickets.

Eugene A. Dexter Charitable Trust Fund Awards Grants

The Community Council of Greater Springfield, Inc. and the Springfield Jewish Community Center, Inc. have received trust fund grants totaling $50,000 from the Eugene A. Dexter Charitable Trust Fund administered by Valley Bank.

According to Graham King, president of Valley Bank, the charitable grants, approved by the Valley Bank Board of Directors on Dec. 24, bring the total 1974 community contribution from the Dexter Fund to $225,000.

The Community Council received $17,106.82 towards the development of a community information and referral service and $18,320 in matching funds for the first-year operation of a Voluntary Action Center in Greater Springfield.

The Jewish Community Center received $15,000 to help defray costs of a new heating installation.

The proposed information and referral program would include a telephone line to link people in need of help with appropriate community social, legal and medical services.

The second Community

Council award will provide partial funding for a Voluntary Action Center, which would create volunteer programs where needed in community life, help place citizen volunteers in appropriate areas and promote voluntarism among Greater Springfield-area residents.

The Dexter Charitable Fund was established in 1946. Under terms of the trust fund, awards are made several times each year to recognized and worthy public charitable organizations. The trust is managed and administered by the trust department of Valley Bank.

National YMCA Week

In this day of fast communication, surprisingly enough, a good many people still think of the Young Men's Christian Association, a United Way of Pioneer Valley member agency, in the old terms of gym-swing.

As National YMCA week approaches (Jan. 26 - Feb. 2) it's a good time to highlight the social development unit program, according to Stanley A. Kaslusky, Metropolitan branch YMCA executive for youth and family services.

Kaslusky said this is one of the more recent programs which includes value education and character building with a physical education and swimming program. Arts and crafts and group work are also an integral part of the program.

"Character building has become a vital component of this program," according to Kaslusky, "because in the last 10 years there has arisen a prevailing attitude among some of our youth that nothing is wrong unless you get caught. Our instructors and youth leadership seek out every opportunity to discuss and demonstrate the utilization of values in daily activity for program participants."

Boys and girls from Agawam, Springfield and West Springfield between the ages of 6 and 12 can enroll in the program for a minimum of 10 weeks. Altogether there are three 10 week sessions during the year.

The 600 youngsters enrolled in the program during the year are transported one afternoon a week after school to the "Y" in Springfield, churches in West Springfield and the Junior High School in Agawam to participate. On Saturdays, according to Kaslusky all youngsters participate between 9:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. in the program in their own communities.

Kaslusky said this multi-experience program affords youngsters with an opportunity to meet new friends, develop skills and gain a sense of accomplishment.

Other programs at the YMCA which are purchased with community contributions to the United Way of Pioneer Valley include gymnastics skills program, Springfield Teen Center, detached work program which is a leader development program for juniors and seniors in high school, and an Indian Guide program for boys, girls and their fathers.

News From Holyoke Community College

A new program that will enable members of the American Institute of Banking to pursue AIB certificates and an associate's degree at Holyoke Community College at the same time has been developed through the cooperation of the college and the AIB's Springfield chapter.

The program has been designed so that AIB courses are part of the college's curriculum and the college's courses are part of the AIB certificate requirements.

The new program, to be administered by the college's division of continuing education, will lead to an associate in science degree in liberal studies with emphasis on banking and finance and also lead to basic, standard and general AIB certificates.

According to the college's continuing education director, William Murphy, the aim of the program is to improve educational opportunities and to facilitate career development for members of the AIB.

Classes in the new program begin during the week of Jan. 27, and registration is set for Jan. 20-24. Courses being offered for the spring term are bank operations, installment credit, home mortgage lending, and bank public relations and marketing.

Courses in the degree program also include principles of accounting, bank management, principles of economics, money and banking, business law, corporation finance, personnel management, English, and social science.

A total of 64 credits is required for the degree from HCC, and at least 30 of these must be earned at the community college, Murphy said.

Credit for course work taken through AIB or other colleges will be granted upon favorable evaluation of a transcript, and credit for prior learning as measured by the college level examination program may also be applied for, he added.

The general condition for admission to the program is either a high school diploma or a Massachusetts equivalency certificate. AIB members who wish to apply should contact the continuing education office at the college.

Students who are not members of the AIB may register for banking courses on a space-available basis.

Big E Moves Up To Eighth Place In Nation

The management of Eastern States Exposition, West Springfield, has announced that the September 1974 Fair attendance has caused "The Big E" to take a giant step forward to the eighth position of the nation's largest fairs.

The general manager of the International Association of Fairs has recently announced the statistical report for the nation's fairs and the Big E's attendance figure of 929,074 has moved it in rank from number 10 in 1973 to eighth largest fair in the nation for 1974. It surpassed the Wisconsin State Fair, which was ninth in 1973 and the Arizona State Fair which was eighth in 1973. Next in line for the Big E to surpass is the Oklahoma State Fair in Oklahoma City.

The largest fair in the nation continues to be the State Fair of Texas located in Dallas, which hosts over 3-million visitors annually. The Big E hopes to surpass the 1-million mark in 1975 with the help of two additional days which have been added to make the Fair one of a dozen in the nation to run 12 days and longer.

The Big E still stands out as the largest fair, attendance wise, in Northeastern United States. Fair dates for 1975 are September 10-21.
